6 Attorneys for Respondent Carmel-by-the-Sea

7 Superior Court of the State of California
8 County of Monterey
9 Unlimited Jurisdiction

10 Royal Calkins,

Case No. 18 CV 002532

11 Petitioner,

12 vs.

Declaration of Gerard A. Rose In Opposition to Motion for Writ of Mandate

13 Carmel-by-the-Sea; and Does 1
14 through 10, inclusive,

Ex Parte Hearing:
July 12, 2018,, 10:00 am
Dept. 13

15 Respondents.

17 I, Gerard A. Rose, declare:

18 1. I am an attorney representing the City of Carmel-19 by-the-Sea ("Respondent"). I have personal knowledge of 20 the facts set out below, and could testify thereto if 21 called upon to do so.

22 2. The Verified Answer to Plaintiff's Petition for 23 Writ of Mandate that is filed herein sets out Respondent's 24 legal factual position concerning this controversy. That 25 Answer is incorporated herein by reference as though fully 26 set out at this point.

27 3. Petitioner Calkins ("Calkins") is a failed
28 journalist who has a reputation for publishing phony

1 stories and false statements about public figures.
2 Consistent with that reputation, he has been carrying on a
3 one-man crusade to besmirch the reputation of Glen Mozingo, 4 the contract city attorney of the City of Carmel-by-the-5 Sea.

6 4. Calkins' Petition is riddled with falsehoods and 7 unsupported innuendos, but the gist of the Petition is that 8 Mr. Mozingo submitted documents to the City in connection
9 with its RFQ for a new City Attorney, and refused to turn 10 them over to the City. That is simply a lie. The truth is 11 that the City was asked to supply those documents to 12 Calkins' attorney, Mr. Shapiro, and it did so.

13 5. Calkins disputes the accuracy of some of the 14 statements made in Mr. Mozingo's resume. See the request 15 for qualification which is attached hereto as Exhibit 1, 16 and Mr. Mozingo's response thereto which is attached as 17 Exhibit 2. The gist of Calkins' current claim is his 18 demand that the City turn over backup to Mr. Mozingo's 19 resume, even though it was not submitted to the City at the 20 time Mr. Mozingo was hired. In fact, Calkins has no right 21 to those documents.

22 6. It is well settled that all California residents
23 have a right to privacy that is guaranteed by Article I,
24 section 1, of the Constitution of the State of California, 25 and Mr. Mozingo is entitled to his privacy as much as 26 anyone else.

27 7. Calkins' false allegations against Mr. Mozingo in 28 his Petition do not entitle him to waste Mr. Mozingo's time

1 and effort in what is obviously a misplaced and unlawful 2 attempt to satisfy his prurient interest in trying to bring 3 down Mr. Mozingo. His motive is transparent, and appears 4 in his moving papers: he wants relief against the City and 5 Mr. Mozingo prior to the Carmel election scheduled for 6 November of this year. See the Petition, page 8:1-6. This 7 is nothing new for Calkins.

8 8. Calkins first threatened to sue the City of Carmel
9 vis a vis Mr. Mozingo in early April of this year (see 10 Exhibit 3 hereto). And he renewed that threat on June 19th 11 of this year (see Exhibit 4 hereto). In the latter threat, 12 Calkins made it clear that he was not satisfied when he was 13 given all of the documents that had been submitted to the 14 City in response to its RFQ, and he threatened to sue the 15 City if he was not given ADDITIONAL DOCUMENTS that had NOT 16 been given to the City by Mr. Mozingo before he was hired.

17 9. In early June the City decided that it had enough
18 of Calkins' threats, and it scheduled and held a closed
19 session which dealt with Calkins' assertions of misconduct
20 on the part of Mr. Mozingo. The closed session took place
21 on June 4th, and consisted of discussions between the City
22 Council, Mr. Mozingo, and two other attorneys for the City.

23 10. Calkins' response to that closed session was 24 predictable: he claimed he was entitled to anything shown
25 to the City during closed session, even if that material 26 was privileged. That claim, which is the essence of the 27 pending Petition, is unwarranted and illegal. Aside from 28 breaching Mr. Mozingo's privacy, disclosure of material

1 shown to the City Council during a closed session would 2 violate the attorney-client and work product privileges,
3 and would also violate the letter and spirit of the Public
4 Records Act. See Government Code section 6254(k) [exempting 5 the production of "records, the disclosure of which is 6 exempted or prohibited pursuant to federal or state law,
7 including but not limited to, provisions of the Evidence
8 Code relating to privilege"]; and Government Code section 9 54957(b), which covers closed sessions which consider the 10 "performance, discipline or dismissal of a public 11 employee."

12 11. Calkins repeatedly claims that there is "no
13 dispute" that any material shown to the City during closes 14 session are "public records." That is nonsense. First of 15 all, none of the documents shown to the City during closed 16 session were ever given to the City, and any allegation by 17 Calkins that they were later "returned" to Mr. Mozingo is 18 false, purely and simply. So, too, are Calkins' many 19 misrepresentaitons about Mr. Mozingo, which go to the heart
20 of this controversy. For example, Calkins claims that Mr.
21 Mozingo lied when he said in his resume that he had not 22 been sued for malpractice. But Calkins omits the fact that 23 Mr. Mozingo's representation about malpractice suits ONLY
24 CONCERNED MALPRACTICE SUITS THAT WERE SUCCESSFULLY ASSERTED
25 AGAINST HIM, HIS PARTNERS OR HIS ASSOCIATES. See Exhibit
26 1, page 3. As another example, Calkins accuses Mr. Mozingo 27 of lying when he stated that he was the lead attorney in 28 his law firm. In fact, he was lead counsel in his law

1 firm, even though its name changed over the years, and 2 eventually became Mozingo and Patel. As another example, 3 Calkins claims that the two congressional medals awarded to 4 Mr. Mozingo were Republican rewards for campaign
5 contributions. In fact, Mr. Mozingo never donated any 6 money whatsoever to any congressional campaign prior to the 7 award of those medals. In short, Calkins is a liar, and 8 demonstrably so. Perhaps that is why his former employer,
9 the Fresno Bee, had to pay several hundred thousand dollars
10 to settle a defamation case arising from a story written by 11 Calkins.

12 12. It is time to stop the pattern of lies being 13 peddled by Calkins. His motion for a writ of mandate 14 should be rejected out of hand.

15 13. I declare under penalty of perjury, under the laws 16 of the State of California, that the foregoing is true and 17 correct, and that I executed this verification on this 10th
18 day of July, 2018, in Carmel-by-the-Sea, California.

I spoke with Glen this morning. I agree with you that no response until Glen returns is a good way to handle this.

Chip

Here is the response I received from Tom Graves regarding my request for records detailing payments, and explanations, for the city's payments to Mr. Mazingo since last July. Initially in a telephone conversation on Friday Mr. Graves said he would be able to provide the requested information with some redaction but subsequently he sent me this, indicating that he had been overruled by the city attorney, He did not provide any rationale or city any exemptions from the Public Records Act.

I responded to him by email saying it seems to me the city attorney has a conflict of interest and should not be involved in this matter. Mr. Graves has not responded to that.

It is my reading of the applicable law and related court rulings that I am entitled to a detailed account of each billing from Mr. Mazingo and each payment to Mr. Mazingo on any and all matters that are not the subject of continuing litigation or enforcement action. FYI, we are prepared to go to court to press this claim, and as you probably are aware, if we prevail, the city would be required to pay our attorney fees and court costs.

Good Morning,

I want to thank you for our several conversations yesterday. They were interesting and informative, not to mention lively. But after researching your request, and in keeping with legal advice from our City Attorney, we will not be offering any more detail than we already have in response to this request.

Hey Steve:

First, are you recusing yourself from the police station renovation? Because you live too close?

Second, is Glen M. still handling public records requests involving himself? (We are preparing to go to court over the resume issues.)

Third, Is it now city policy not to respond to specific reporters? That is a serious question.

Glad to see you are running. I don't know if you read my piece about Potter getting into the race, but do yourself a favor. Go back and take a look and click on the links to previous stories.

Thanks
Royal
